Leonard Cohen's name may never have appeared in the same sentence as the word 'prolific', but no other contemporary songwriter has created a body of work of such consistent quality, such singular emotional and intellectual intelligence.

Beginning with Cohen the young poet and author in his home town of Montreal, and ending with his 2012 release - Old Ideas - and his recent acclaimed live performances, Everybody Knows honours Leonard Cohen's eightieth birthday by celebrating his genius and tracing his rise to stardom through 200 photographs and the thoughts, memories and comments of those who have both worked with and been inspired by him.

THE AUTHOR

Harvey Kubernik is a writer, editor and journalist whose work has appeared internationally in, amongst others, Melody Maker, the Los Angeles Free Press, Crawdaddy!, Musician, Goldmine, MIX, the Los Angeles Times, Record Collector News and MOJO. The author of several books, his latest, Canyon of Dreams: The Magic and the Music of Laurel Canyon was described by one reviewer as 'one of the best books on rock ever written'. A former A&R man for MCA records, in the past 40 years he has appeared in and produced countless music documentaries, written extensively on Leonard Cohen, and interviewed him several times.
